RHYME

RHYME drives deep <in purple> on her own lane blasting a self-titled genre.

Through poetry and sound she masterfully collides the newness of our ever-changing world with the echoes of the genres that have marked both cities and decades on their own such as Rock & Roll, Spoken Word, Electronic, Electro/Techno/Hardstyle, Hip Hop, and Experimental.

She is the muse of the 22nd century.

Discovered in Japan as the muse of RHYME SO, with legendary act 'Shinichi Osawa' The duo project has been picked up by 88Rising and gone onto working with acts such as Sophie Ellis-Bextor, MILK, Mari Natsuki, Dongurizu, KAZUO and opening stages for likes of Boys Noize.

She is known for appearing alongside Yellow Claw and DJ-ing private spaces for Billie Eilish and her entourage.

This purple woman plays the saxophone (alto and Soprano), the Japanese koto, shakuhachi and the piano, programming and producing her compositions on Ableton.

She has produced several tracks in award winning anime series 'BANANA FISH' that won best anime of 2019. Her producing work can also be found in the mega movie 'DINER' directed by Nina Mikagawa.

Based between Paris & Tokyo and specializing in sophisticated fresh art-focused audiovisual creations, she blends her take on Japanese culture and poetry with her unique musical genre and storytelling abilities in all English, Japanese and French.

Her vocal style resonates speech gesang meets la chanson français.

First and foremost a mesmerizing live performer, she has also carved a name in the DJ scene.

RHYME & THE UNDERGROUND SCENE

Recognized for her contributions to the Japanese underground scene, her presence is felt behind DJ or Vinyl decks in the most eclectic clubs, crafting avant-garde atmospheres. In addition to her DJ work, she specializes in creating and performing live, bespoke musical environments for prestigious clients such as Dom Pérignon, as well as upscale establishments like Edition Hotel Tokyo, Ginza Music Bar, Shibuya Sky, and Bottega Veneta.

RHYME & FASHION

Renowned within the fashion industry, she's graced the cover of Harper's Bazaar and commanded up to 30-page spreads in magazines across the world including NYLON, ELLE, SPUR, MADAME FIGARO, NUMÉRO, BASIC LA, MUNDANE, FADDY USA, SOUND & RECORDING. Beyond her prowess in styling and modeling, she continually delivers captivating musical experiences. Notable brands like DIOR, YSL, COACH, and Dolce & Gabbana have eagerly collaborated with her:

Last year, she appeared on TV screens across Japan, accompanied by multiple billboards, to showcase her new collaboration with the health food brand ESTHE PRO LABO. She composed the music and lent her voice for the dialogue in the major advertisement.

SKATE THROUGH

RHYME is an avid winter sports performer, renowned for her figure ice-skating skills which she has seamlessly integrated into her musical pursuits.

In 2023, she composed the alluringly poetic music for LINGERIEAM while also captivating viewers with her dreamy lingerie-clad skating performance for their campaign.

Viral song “Fashion Blogger” a standout from her RHYME SO project, was debuted as a spectacular music video, set in an imaginary Figure-skating Grand Prix with a cameo appearance by RuPaul's Drag Race star 'MILK'.

Recently, in the city of Chiba, Japan, she collaborated with GLICE Japan for a special gala event, where she skated alongside legendary world champion skater Miki Ando, drawing thousands of locals to witness the mesmerizing ice spectacle.
